PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES & EXPERIENCE

Drawing from decades of experience as a psychiatric nurse and licensed marriage and family therapist, Bonnie Artman Fox has helped thousands of people resolve conflict in both their personal and professional lives. As an accredited leadership coach, Bonnie specializes in uncovering the real roots of issues that undermine employees' performance, productivity, and team cohesiveness – an approach she's known for: the Workplace Family Factor®. She is the best-selling author of How Did My Family Get In My Office?! Surprising Ways Your Upbringing Impacts You At Work And What You Can Do About It.

Bonnie works with executive leaders and team managers who want to stop divisive behaviors and build the team trust needed to create healthy work cultures that drive results. Her Leadership Turnaround coaching program has an 82% success rate in equipping leaders to replace abrasive behaviors with emotional intelligence skills and stops good employees from leaving. Additionally, as a member of CAPA Pro, the professional affiliate network of Pat Lencioni and the Table Group, Bonnie guides leaders in developing cultures anchored in team cohesiveness, clarity, healthy communication, and priority alignment. A sought-after speaker, Bonnie is the immediate past co-president of the Pittsburgh chapter of the National Speakers Association (NSA).
