PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES & EXPERIENCE

Jessica relishes helping others find their fullest potential. As a facilitator, her passionate and authentic nature allows her to connect with any audience. The positive attitude and uplifting energy she brings to the classroom sets her apart. Jessica has 15 years of experience in corporate training, specifically focused on the development of people and sales. While participating in one of Jessica's workshops, you will learn, grow, and leave with a sense of purpose.

With 10 years of marketing and communication expertise, Jessica shares her expertise in customer service, project management, and business management. Jessica joined the APLS Group team in 2019 and has been an integral and dynamic member ever since. Most recently, she has transitioned to facilitating Everything DiSC® and is our resident Everything DiSC® Catalyst Specialist. Outside of APLS Group, Jessica is an active member of the Junior League of Raleigh where she enjoys volunteering and serving her community.
