

PATRICK CURRAN

Leadership Coach

CLICK BELOW TO CONNECT WITH PATRICK!

facilitator@aplsgroup.com OR LinkedIn

- EDUCATION
- B.A. in Theology from Loyola University Chicago
 - M.B.A. from UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School

PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES & EXPERIENCE

Patrick believes that people are filled with untapped potential. He uses coaching and performance psychology tools to challenge the status quo, earning his reputation as a change catalyst. Patrick blends a thoughtful, attentive style with his experience directing programs, coaching teams, and advising leaders to develop solutions that are client-driven, goal-focused, business smart, and people-centered. He enjoys serving as a thought partner for executives who are passionate about leadership and ready to take on the hard work of personal and organizational transformation.

Executives leverage his broad background and skills for ideation to envision innovative solutions and bold new futures. With more than 20 years of facilitation experience, Patrick is adept at helping teams have the deeper, meaningful conversations that resolve conflicts and create alignment. He understands that leaders must navigate ambiguity and clarify the path for execution. Patrick has facilitated leadership retreats, strategic planning sessions, team building workshops, and a variety of organizational improvement exercises for for-profit and non-profit clients including high-growth ventures, multi-national public companies, start-ups and community organizations. His expertise at asking the questions that lead to deeper insight has helped drive change as a product manager, process engineer, marketing and communications consultant, and strategist.

HIS CERTIFICATIONS INCLUDE:

- Business and Professional Coaching from NC State
- International Coach Federation (ICF) ACC Accredited Coach
- Tilt 365® Certified Master Agility Practitioner

APLSGROUP.COM